

The Buzz Online

Published Monday Sep 20, 2021

Friends of Aine, a Manchester nonprofit providing bereavement support services to grieving children, teens and families, launched its free Backpack Program this week with distribution to the Manchester School District. Funded by the Bean Foundation, the backpacks include grief support tools students can use individually, or together with school community members, including teachers, guidance counselors, social workers, coaches, and support staff.

Source: Business NH Magazine: The Buzz Online