

Friends of Aine™

Center for Grieving Children & Families

Book List for Children

One Wave at a Time (2018)	Holly Thompson	Grief comes in waves, how we learn to cope
What On Earth Do You Do When Someone Dies? (1999)	Trevor Romain	Answers kids' questions about death
Turned Upside Down: A Flip Book (2013)	Teana Tache	Guides children through the grieving process; written as conversation between child and important person
I Can't Believe They're Gone (2023)	Karen Brough	Follow the mouse family as gentle Bear helps each one understand their grief.
The Memory Box (2017)	Joanna Rowland	Remembering our special person
Grief is a Mess (2015)	Jackie Schuld	Grief is different for everyone
An Emotion Called Grief (2021)	Candy Heather Eimers	Coping with grief from a young boy's perspective
Goodbye (2023)	Megan Madison	A first conversation about grief
The Goodbye Book (2015)	Todd Parr	Saying goodbye to someone you love
A Story for Hippo (2000)	Simon Puttock	Keeping the memory of a cherished person alive
ABC's of Grief (2024)	Jessica Correnti	Grief explained using the alphabet
Feeling All My Grief (2023)	Kim T.S.	Grieving your own way
Little Mole Finds Hope (2020)	Glenys Jenlist	Finding hope when sad
The Heart & the Bottle (2010)	Oliver Jerrers	Finding joy after loss
Ida Always (2016)	Caron Lewis	Reminder that loved ones lost will stay in our hearts
I Will Always Love You (2019)	Melissa Lyons	Explains death and offers peace and comfort
The Elephant in the Room (2014)	Amanda Edwards Leslie Ponciano	Coping Strategies
More Than Sad (2024)	Laura Camerona	All grief feelings are valid
Life is Like the Wind (2014)	Shona Innes Irisz Agocs	Life, loss, and coping
The Blue Elephant (2018)	Elizabeth Ann Liechty	Grief, loss, and friendship
When Sadness Is at Your Door (2019)	Eva Eland	Focus on feelings rather than circumstance
The Healing Book (2006)	Ellen Sabin	Workbook that sparks conversation and connection